

The Tackley Times

Fun Fact

Did you know a fish can taste with their entire body.

What's Up In School

This month is the last month of the school year. We will soon be having to say goodbye to our wonderful year sixes as they leave for secondary school. But to celebrate them moving on to a new part of their life we have an end of term School disco where you can let your hair down and have a boogie !!! you get to wear what you want, dance in the dark and just have a good time.

Round The World Today

Sir Kier Starmer is now stepping down from the role of Prime Minister because he doesn't have enough support. Some say he doesn't have enough "charisma" and he's not that sensible. While others say he is a sensible person, makes good choices for our country and that's all that matters, no "charisma" needed.

Amazing Humans

Ellie Simmonds (born on November 1994) is a retired British Paralympian swimmer who has competed in many events. She first came to national attention in the 2008 Summer Paralympics in Beijing, winning two gold medals for Great Britain. Despite her disability, Ellie has come on so far. In total she has now won five gold medals, she's been on Strictly and is now a show host.

BOOK DISCO ELLIE FISH VATICAN

Something Peculiar

Covering 44 hectares (roughly 109 acres) Vatican City is surrounded completely by Rome. Even though it was the spiritual home of the Catholic Church for Millenia, it only became an independent sovereign state on February 11th 1929. Due to millions of tourists travelling over each year, pickpocketing and minor theft give the country the highest crime rate per capita in the World.

Positive Poem

Peaceful summer sky
Outside,
Sitting in a field
I find positivity
Tell myself,
I am enough
Valiant, I am
Every day on my search for positivity

And if you would like your own positive poem to be in the Tackley Times, then send your poem to either Tilly or Alfie. Next Edition out 1st October!
